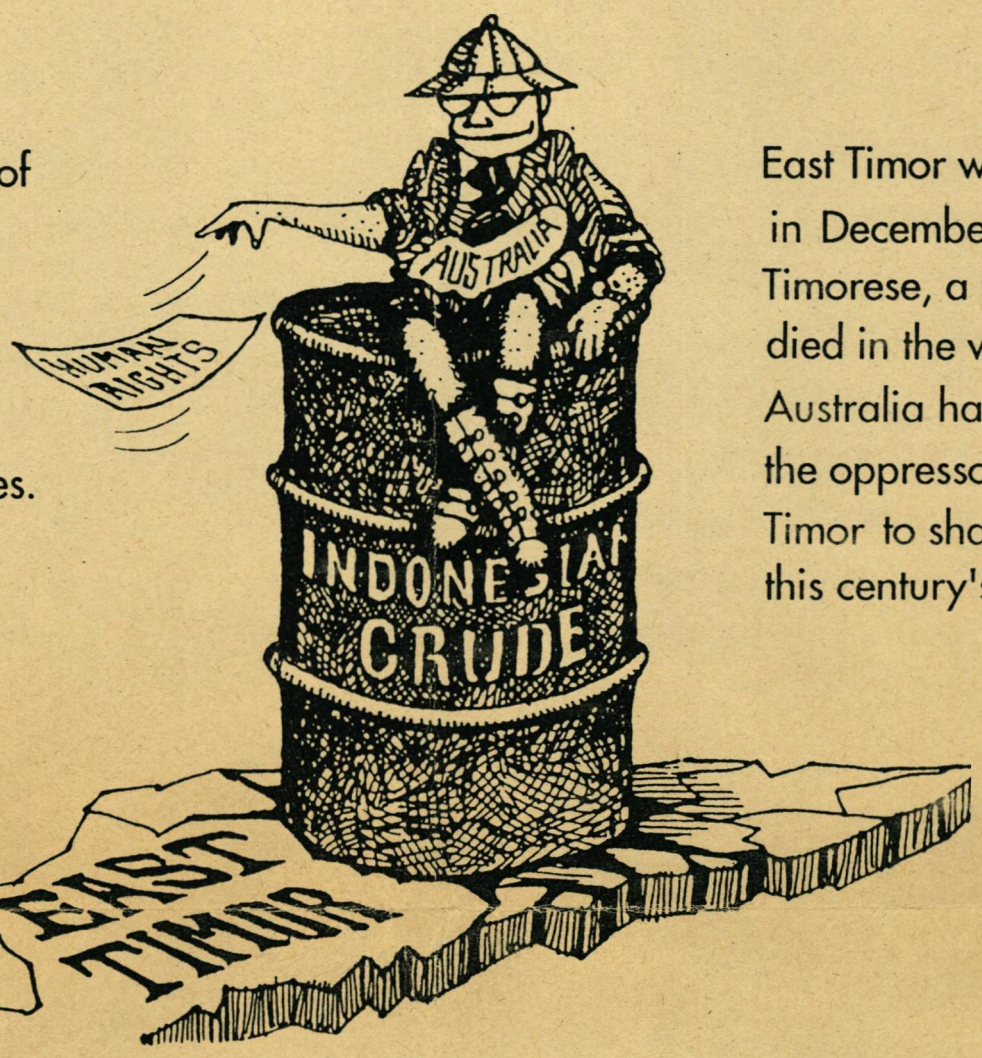
AUSTRALIAN GOVERNMENT'S TIMOR GAP TREATY WITH INDONESIA

DAYLIGHT ROBBERY!

Last December the Government of Bob Hawke signed a treaty with Indonesia for joint exploitation of oil in the seabed off East Timor. Indonesia has no right to dispose of these reserves. They belong to the people of East Timor.



East Timor was invaded by Indonesia in December 1975. 200,000 East Timorese, a third of the population, died in the war that followed. Australia has entered into a treaty with the oppressors of the people of East Timor to share the spoils of one of this century's most brutal wars.

Join us in a protest outside the Australian High Commission.

Join us in calling on the Australian Parliament to refuse to ratify this robbers' pact.

Speakers:

Lord Avebury, Parliamentarians for East Timor

Ann Clwyd, M.P.

Estevao Cabral, East Timorese Refugee

Sasha Stepan, Australian writer
